

Dear FCC, I'm writing to express my extreme opposition to lifting the ban on cell phone use aboard airplanes. I can only imagine the noisy, unpleasant situation on any flight if people are all chatting away loudly while others are trying to sleep, read or relax. If business-type folk need to communicate, they can use an IM or email (once that's available). But it'll be the regular people, just calling to chat because they're bored that will annoy you as you try to concentrate on John le Carre. Please -- put yourself in that situation, think about it and keep the ban intact. Thank you for listening.
